

TI People

The world of work is changing: Digital disrupts corporate strategy. Companies change the way they organize work and find new ways to manage people.

Founded in 2016, TI People is located in Hamburg, London, San Francisco, and Washington DC, helping organizations transform to innovate people management. We have designed a unique consulting model to aid senior executives of the most progressive companies in the world. We help them to set up their organizations for success in the new work environment and to significantly increase work productivity.

For the next level of growth we are looking for a

Client Experience Associate

based in Hamburg

Your Impact

In your role, you will work closely with our Client Experience Director helping to manage and broaden our existing client base. You will be the main point of contact for some of the most progressive HR organizations in Europe. As part of our product management efforts, you will be responsible for retention marketing, organizing our client conferences end-to-end and you will play a critical role in new product development with a focus on the most innovative HR topics. This is an opportunity to build a career in client experience and product management.

What Makes You Successful

You are a top graduate talent with first work experience, who takes responsibility and enjoy a self-reliant working style. You are a positive challenger, intellectually curious, and intrigued by the power of digital strategies. And you enjoy working and growing in an open-minded, entrepreneurial team.
